Dear Gareth

I write to thank you for your recent IT work for JRB Accountancy Ltd. When starting any company there's a million things requiring attention, so when I set up JRB Accountancy Ltd it was a weight off my mind knowing that after telling you what I required from my system, you and How Chan just set about building and installing it with minimal fuss. The system has worked brilliantly from day one, and although there have been a few teething issues which would be expected with any new system, what has really impressed me is the efficiency at resolving any issues that arise, including out of hours service to minimise my downtime.

For this reason (and many more) I would not hesitate to recommend Halchax Ltd.

Yours sincerely

JRB Accountancy Ltd
